This Saturday, several students will be walkin' the walk to show off the designs of 27 UNI Textiles and Apparel students for the 13th Annual Textiles and Apparel Design Show.

This year's theme is "Cosmic Revolution," featuring 70 original designs. A jury will approve all items before exhibited.

Faculty advisors include Dr. Theresa Winge and Dr. Annette Lynch, who initiated the first fashion show in 1992. Directors include junior Textiles and Apparel majors Brianna Smith and Teresa Ebensberger and senior Textiles and Apparel major Natalie Wendt.

The show will be held Saturday, April 9, at 8 p.m. in Lang Auditorium. Introduction performances will be presented by the RKB Dance Company, which performs contemporary dance works. A reception will follow at the UNI Multicultural Center. For more information on UNI Textiles and Apparel, visit <http://www.fp.uni.edu/tapp>.
